

MUST AND SHOULD

Jana Mrdović 6-4

SHOULD AND SHOULD NOT

You should raise your hand to speak. If you do not do like that many pupils will speak in the same time and it will be noisy.

You should not sleep in class because you will disturb other pupils if you snore. 😊

You should be quiet during classes. That advice is for better quality of classes.

You should be polite to teachers. In that way you show your culture.

You should learn ordinarily if you want to be an excellent student.
You should pick up all your things and books after classes. Nobody will take care about your things.

You should go to the library to borrow books.

You should do your homework every time your teacher says to.

You should not forget your homework.

You should not spend too many hours resolving school problems on a computer.

MUST AND MUST NOT

You must study hard if you want to pass your exams.
You must have all documents for school enrollment.
You must finish your exercises on time.

You must not be late for school. Classes begin at 8 o'clock in the morning. You have to arrive on time.

You must not use your mobile phone in class.

You must not make selfies in class.

You must not run in the corridors. You can hurt yourself and others.

You must not speak with your classmate while teacher speaks.

You must not shout at the teacher or your classmates.

You must not fight with other children at school and in the school yard.

You must not smoke at school. It is not allowed.

You must not bring animals and pets to school. School is not the place for them.
